

Monochrome Magic with Mollie & Fred

By: MOLLIE & FRED

Rob Ryan's instantly recognisable intricate cut-paper prints make beautiful gift ideas for friends and loved ones, and Mollie and Fred now have some of his beautiful new designs in stock.

The gorgeously whimsical Rob Ryan "This Was Our Place In All Weathers... All Year Round" plates would make a wonderfully thoughtful housewarming or wedding gift. Depicting snow, wind, sun and rain, these delightful monochrome plates would look stunning hung on a wall to make an eye-catching piece of wall-art.

The charming Rob Ryan "This Same Moon" ceramic mugs would make a beautiful engagement or anniversary gift idea, especially for a couple that have to spend time apart. On the left mug is the sentiment that: "Every night at the same time I look up at the moon and hold it tight in my heart and think of you a thousand miles away over land and sea looking up at the moon thinking of me," while on the right mug are the words: "This same moon and this same sky hang over both you and I. In our dreams and in our hearts it helps us feel less apart".

The stylish monochrome Rob Ryan "Other Planets Cannot Be As Beautiful As This One" bone china plate would also make a wonderful housewarming or wedding gift, or the perfect trinket for an eternal optimist.
